When Rani (Kareena Kapoor Khan) is in love with Kabir (Saif Ali Khan), an Indian poet, he rejects her. However, after his death she remains in love. When she finally meets him in her dreams and tells him they can no longer be apart, he too, begins to see visions of the two of them together. He visits her and they share a world-shattering kiss. Although disappointed that it wasn't real, he accepts the fact that what they shared was so powerful it transcended reality and fulfilled their hearts' longing for each other in death. That is how it is between them until one night, they are reunited in life. Kabir's friend, Hassan (Shah Rukh Khan), the fiancé of Rani's sister, Shehzadi (Kareena Kapoor Khan) goes to see Kabir at his home in Kashmir. Although Kabir is upset that he hasn't visited him for a while, he agrees to meet the girl. He goes to the bazaar that night but when she doesn't show up he leaves. On his way back home he tells Rani she was with him earlier in the evening. He asks her why her sister insists on seeing him even though he isn't interested in her. Rani tells him that Shehzadi is deeply in love with him. As a result of this conversation, when Hassan leaves, Kabir goes to see Shehzadi who confesses her love for him. The two share a passionate kiss when suddenly he remembers Rani and what she said to him earlier in the day. Although he loves her dearly, he tells Shehzadi that it cannot be between them because he is married to someone else. The next morning Hassan goes to see Kabir again and this time brings Rani with him. When they arrive at his home they find out that Shehzadi went there the previous night and told Kabir she was in love with him. She says that she wants to marry him and asks if he could bear the burden of a woman's love forever. When Rani hears this, she is heartbroken because she knows that Kabir never reciprocated her feelings. Hassan asks Kabir what he intends to do about his friend's feelings for him. Kabir says that if Shehzadi loves him then it is up to them whether they want to get married or not. He feels responsible for all of her happiness, but he has no aspirations after his wife who died in an accident two years ago. Rani is disappointed that Kabir doesn't return her feelings. She leaves with Hassan to come back the next day. When they do, he tells them he has made up his mind to marry Shehzadi. On their wedding day, the family goes to the temple at 6 AM. Hassan's friend, Hasan comes to Kabir's home to see him before the wedding begins. He tells him that Rani was unable to go back home after she left so she has been waiting for hours in front of Kabir's house for the ceremony to begin.
